FOREWORD

We, the annual staff, submit to you this the thirteenth volume of The Parrot, hoping that it will keep forever vivid in your memories the school life of 1934-35.

We have endeavored to portray, both in dedication and theme, some builders of literature, with the hope that this will prove an incentive for those who peruse this book to carry on this important and interesting phase of life.

DEDICATION

MISS OLA IRENE FLEMING

To partly show the appreciation of what Miss Fleming has meant to our class and the school as a whole during the time she has been connected with it, for her untiring efforts in our behalf, for her loyalty, co-operation and unfailing good nature, we, the class of nineteen hundred thirty-five, respectfully dedicate this the

IN MEMORIAM

RICHARD ALEXANDER HARRIS

November 17, 1916—February 13, 1935

We, the class of nineteen hundred thirty-five, dedicate this page to the memory of Richard Harris, a member of the Junior Class. "Diek" was one of our most popular and loyal students, actively engaged in all phases of our student life. We miss him and shall cherish his memory always.

POST GRADUATES

DORIS HOLLER

Doris has meant much to our school during the short year she has spent with us. She has won a great host of friends in our school with her neatness, politeness, and exceptionally fine abilities. Doris has made a fine impression on the student body and faculty of C. G. H. S.

RAY LIPE

Everyone was glad to see Ray back again with us when the school year of '34-'35 began. His friendliness and likable disposition have won the highest respect of his friends. Ray is always backing anything that China Grove High undertakes. He is a splendid student and a fine fellow.

CARLYN EARNHARDT

We now know what a great loss it was to Granite Quarry High School when Carlyn came to China Grove for her Commercial Course. She has a radiant smile and a good nature that have won a place in our hearts. She always "delivers the goods" in her class work.

MASCOTS

ARTHUR DAVIS and PEGGY JO LIPE

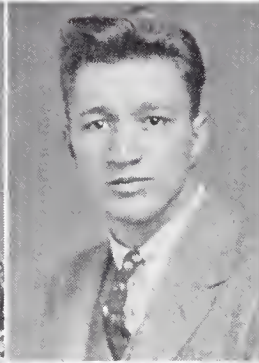

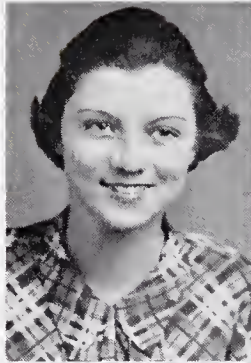

The youngest and most interesting members of the class of nineteen hundred thirty-five—our mascots. By their winsome ways and lovable manners they have endeared themselves to each member of our class and helped make our senior year more enjoyable. They have meant much to us, and our love and very best wishes are theirs.

The PARROT

Sara Baker

Home Eco. Club (2-3-4);
Track (1).

Everybody knows her—everybody likes her. Sara is the type of girl you can't help but like. She combines a sincere purpose in life with a great sense of humor and plenty of fun.

Marvin Chapman

Track (1); Monogram Club (2-3-4); Dramatic Club (3-4); Hi-Y Club (4); Beta Club (4); Baseball (2-3-4); Basketball (4); Football (4); Sec. of Home Room (4).

Studious, handsome and alert. When it comes to sports and class work, Marvin is always there. We believe the world holds something worthwhile in store for Marvin.

Pauline Barnhardt

Home Eco. Club (2-3); Girl Reserve Club (4).

A sweet disposition seems to be one of the chief characteristics of Pauline. C. G. H. will roll on many a year before her friends forget the genuine friendliness she radiates.

Letha Correll

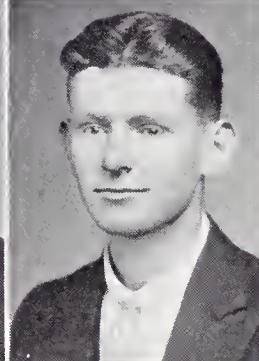

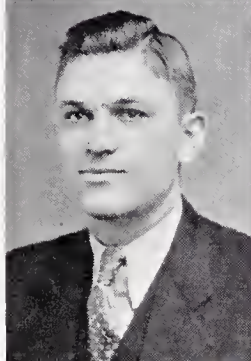

Home Eco. Club (2); Pen and Ink Club (3); Girl Reserve (4).

Letha is one of those persons who, though quiet, knows how to make friends and keep them. Here's to you and may your highest ambition be your slightest achievement!

C. D. Barringer

Class President (1-2); Hi-Y Club (2-4); President Hi-Y Club (4); Debating Club (4).

Sociable, energetic and capable. He has been a credit to his class and has already accomplished great things. The world needs more men like C. D. We hope to hear great things of him.

Grady Corriher

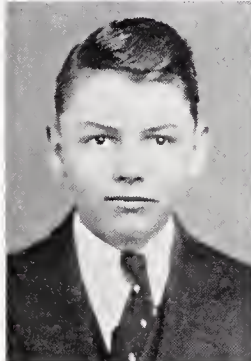

Baseball (3-4); Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1-2-3-4); Monogram Club (3-4); Physical Ed. Club (3); Glee Club (4).

"Easy Going"—that's Grady. A friend to his bitterest enemy. Your kind always succeeds, Grady, so fall in line.

John White Bostian

Physical Ed. Club (3-4); Glee Club (3-4); Hi-Y (2-4).

Little, but energetic when it comes to studies. He takes life seriously and believes, "He who works accomplishes." We are expecting great things from you, John. Go to it!

Helen Corriher

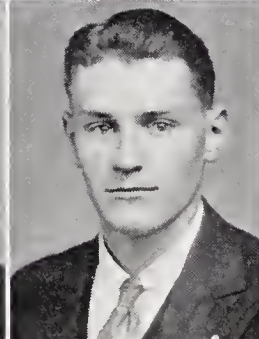

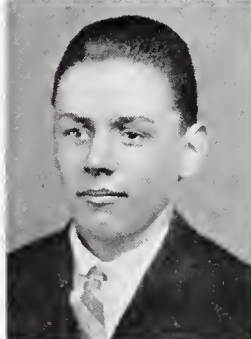

Home Eco. Club (2-3); Glee Club (2-3-4); Dramatics Club (4).

Helen has won a place for herself among the students at C. G. H. She has a keen sense of humor that will help her in obtaining the best things in life.

Philip Bostian

Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Dramatics Club (3); Pen and Ink Club (4); Hi-Y (2-3-4); Football (2).

"Laugh and the world laughs with you," is Philip's creed. Happy on all occasions especially when there is a game. Philip is going to be a business man and we wish him all of the success possible.

Troy Corriher

Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1-2-3-4); Monogram Club (2-3-4); Baseball (2-3-4); Physical Ed. (3); Glee Club (4).

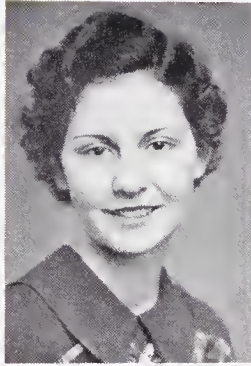

Troy is an easy-going fellow who is sure to win a name for himself. He has been our first baseman on the diamond for three years. Troy has the ability to gain friends and has gained many during his high school career. Luck to you, Troy!

The PARROT

Blanche Curran

Home Eco. Club (2-3-4), Secretary (4), Treasurer (2).

Blushes and smiles combined give Blanche her greatest charm and she does both on all occasions. We can visualize only success for her.

Sadie Deal

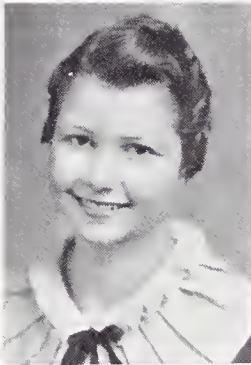

Home Eco. Club (1-2-3-4); History Club (3); Vogue Literary Society (1); Girls' Physical Education (1).

Sadie is a generous, kind-hearted girl who fairly radiates good humor. Her cleverness and unusual charm have won a place in our hearts. Keep the good work goin', Sadie!

Evelyn Davis

Home Eco. Club (2-3); Glee Club (2-4); Dramatics Club (4).

Evelyn has a sweet disposition. She is not as noisy as the rest of us, yet she can laugh at the right time. Luck to you!

Jewrell Dial

Home Eco. Club (2-3); Assistant Sec. Home Eco. Club (4); Class Treasurer (2).

Jewrell is one of the prettiest girls in our class. She is always ready for anything that proves exciting. She and "Lib" are buddies and both have very lovable dispositions.

Margaret Catherine Davis

Pen and Ink Club (2); President of Home Room (3); Vice-President Junior Class; Dramatics Club (3); Beta Club (3).

Margaret is one of the best students we have in school. We're hoping to hear from Margaret and her essays later on. Here's to you!

Juanita Dickerson

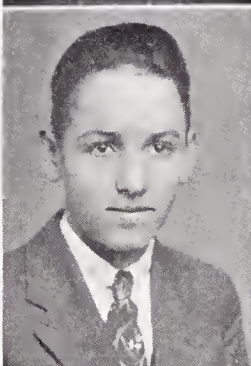

Home Eco. Club (2); Girl Reserves (3-4); Beta Club (4); Girls' Physical Education Club (4).

Juanita has enough pep to fire a whole furnace. She has an overflow in Miss Fleming's English Class. However, she is a friend that "sticks." (How about it, Wendell?)

Wendell Davis

Dramatics Club (3-4); Beta Club (4); Treasurer Beta Club (4); Debating Team (4); Assistant Business Manager PARROT (3); Business Manager PARROT (4).

Wendell has been a good student and has taken an active part in many school activities. Good luck, Wendell!

Florence Erwin

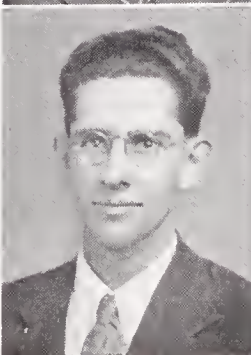

Home Eco. Club (1-2-3-4); President Home Eco. Club (4); History Club (3); Olympian Literary Society (1); Marshal (3); Girls' Physical Education Club (1); Basketball (4); Librarian (3-4); Monogram Club (4).

A petite, sweet maid is Florence. She has a quiet unassuming way but is a sincere friend. We're sure the opposite sex thinks so.

Carl Deal

Baseball (2-3-4); Basketball (2-3-4); Track (1); Football (4); Physical Education Club (1); Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1-2-3-4); Dramatics Club (3-4); Glee Club (2-3-4).

Carl has been successful even at the game of hearts. He has been a great asset to old China Grove High. Don't work too hard, Carl!

Josephine Fesperman

Glee Club (3-4); Pen and Ink Club (3); Home Eco. Club (2-4); Vice-President Home Eco. Club (4).

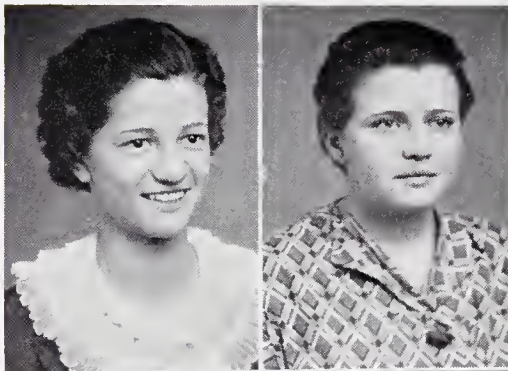

Give "Jo" a Chevrolet with a horn and four wheels (with or without brakes) and she can live, love and be happy. Everybody likes "Jo" and admires her independent spirit—Here's to your future!

The PARROT

Elizabeth Fleming

Home Eco. Club (2-3-4), Sec. (3-4).

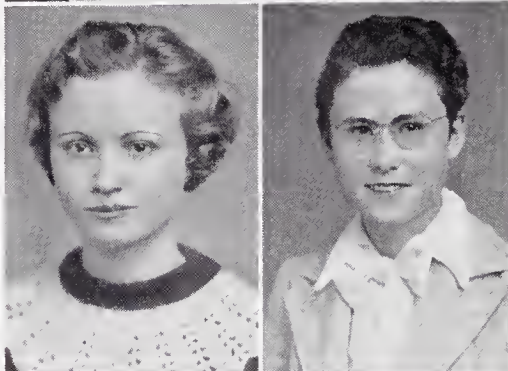

Here's one who personifies good nature and geniality. We predict that her contagious smile and optimistic view of life will assure steady sailing on life's sea.

Lucille Henrickson

Granite Quarry High (1-2); Girl Reserve Club (3-4), Pres. of Club (4); Beta Club (4); Librarian (4).

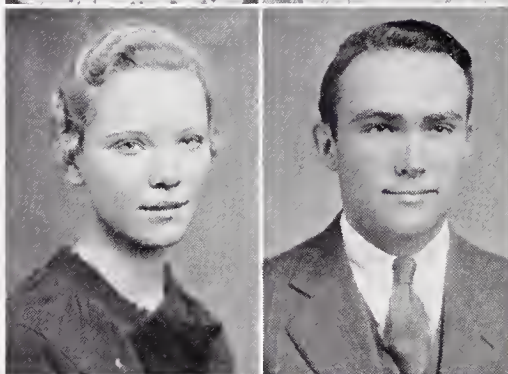

Lucille is frank and open and scorns insincerity and affectation. She is one of our outstanding students and worthy of the best.

Eva Jones Hopkins

Home Eco. Club (2); Girl Reserves (3-4), Sec. (4).

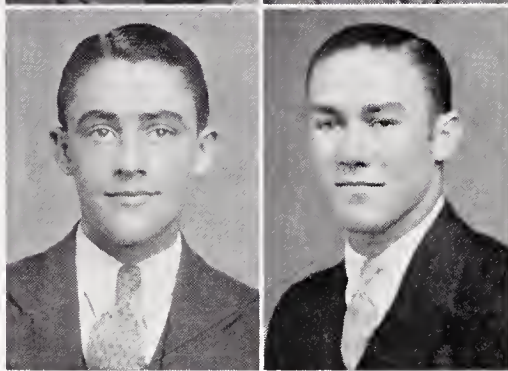

Eva Jones is always bubbling over with laughter. To tell the truth there isn't a better natured girl in school. We can list her as one of the most valuable members of our class.

Douglas Houck

Young Tar Heel Farmers (4); Hi-Y Club (1); Dramatics Club (1); Debating Team (4); Campus Improvement Club (1).

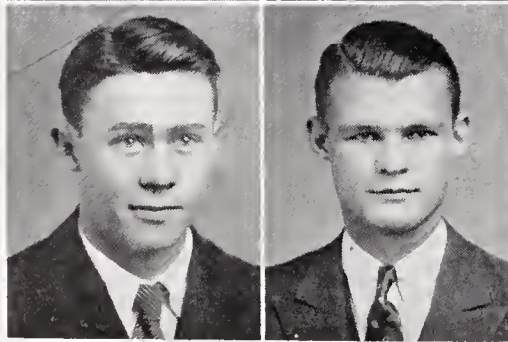

We find "Doug" to be a happy-go-lucky fellow. We all like him and who wouldn't? We hope you'll "Take it easy, have your fun, and let the world flicker out."

Earl Kirk

Physical Ed. Club (1-2-3-4); Debating Club (3); Junior Varsity Club (3); Economics Club (4); Baseball (2-4); Track (2).

Earl has made an excellent student. He lives to learn and has proved himself worthy. Here's to you, Earl, we're pulling for you!

Addie Maie Koon

Glee Club (2); Home Eco. Club (2); Debating Club (3-4); President Debating Club (4); Debating Team (4); Manager Girls' Basketball (3-4); Monogram Club (3-4); Dramatics Club (3); Beta Club (4); Physical Ed. Club (4); Tennis Club (3-4); Class Prophet (4).

Addie Maie is by far the best sport in school. May you have the best that life has to offer.

Wilma Lawson

Selma High (1-2); Home Eco. Club (3); Girl Reserve Club (3-4).

Wilma has been with us only two years but has proved herself more than worthy of everyone's friendship. She has acquired many friends who both respect and admire her.

Ralph McCorkle

Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1-2-3-4); Physical Ed. Club (3).

Our master farmer! Always ready to go with the majority. We're depending on you to make a "howling success" of your farm life. Don't disappoint us!

William Miller

Football (1-2-3-4); Basketball (2-3-4), Alternate Captain (4); Baseball (2-3-4); Track (1); Hi-Y Club (2-3-4); Pen and Ink Club (3-4); Glee Club (2-3-4); Monogram Club (1-2-3-4); Physical Education Club (1); Marshal (3).

When sports are mentioned, "Bill" is the subject. Keep it up, "Bill," and we're hoping to get a card from you when you get to West Point.

Lamar Morgan

Chapel Hill High (1); President of Class (2); Hi-Y Club (2-3-4); Sec. and Treas. of Hi-Y (4); Monogram Club (2-3-4); Football (2-3-4), Captain of Team (4); Baseball (2-3-4); Captain of Baseball Team (2); Tennis Club (4); President of Class (4); Marshal (3); Pen and Ink Club (3-4), Editor-in-Chief (3-4).

Nice goin', Morgan!

The PARROT

Clement Murray

"Clem" has gained many friends because of his love for humor. He is very original and resourceful. We are depending on his making a big success.

Jason Park

Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1-2-3-4), President of Club (4); Dramatics Club (3); Hi-Y Club (4).

Jason is quiet but this doesn't keep him from being liked by the student body in general. Jason has been a most dependable bus driver and is a very likable young fellow. Keep goin', Jason!

Fred Peacock

Football (4); Basketball (4); Baseball (4); Glee Club (4); Dramatics Club (4); Monogram Club (4); Vice-Pres. of Class (4); Alternate Captain of Basketball (4).

It didn't take Fred long to win a host of friends because of his humor and unexcelled abilities. Good luck, Peacock!

Josephine Rankin

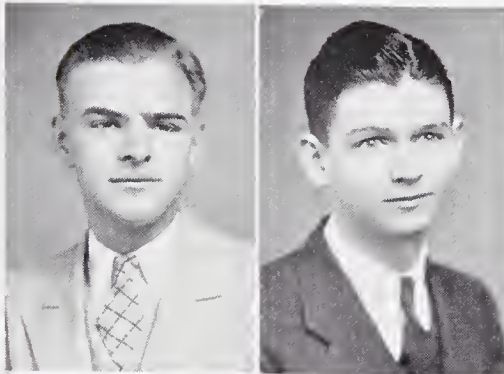

Vice-Pres. Class (1); Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Tennis Club (2); Sec. of Class (2); Sec. of Home Eco. Club (2); Cheer Leader (3); Vice-Pres. Class (3); Assis. Editor of PARROT (3); Chief Marshal (3); Pres. of Beta Club (4); Pres. Dramatics Club (4); Editor-in-Chief of PARROT (4); Last Will and Testator (4).

"Jo" has meant much to her class and the school as a whole. Our best wishes are yours.

Homer Safrit

Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1-2-3-4); Debating Club (3-4); Hi-Y Club (2-4); Physical Ed. Club (1).

Homer is liked by everyone. He is quiet, sociable and has a magnetic personality. He is sure to succeed.

Armon Sasser

Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (2-3); President of Club (3); Debating Club (3-4).

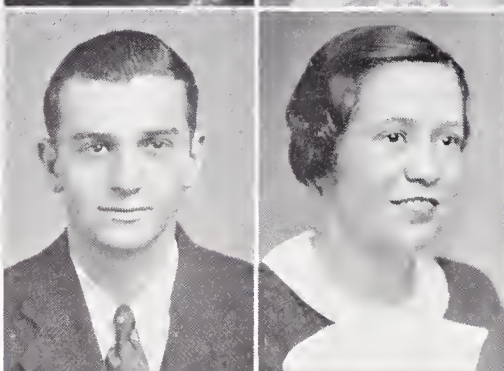

Armon has been a very dependable member of the basketball team. Real service will be given in a forceful way when Armon undertakes the tasks of life.

Elizabeth Silliman

Home Eco. Club (2-3-4); Beta Club (4).

Elizabeth is a girl who possesses all the qualities that go into the making of a superior student. She likes to talk about Mr. Bostian. All joking aside, we sincerely wish you LUCK.

Maxine Sloan

Sec. of Class (1); Home Eco. Club (2); President of Club (2); Debating Club (3); Pen and Ink Club (3); Sec. and Treas. of Club (3); Treasurer (4); Vice-Pres. of Girl Reserve Club (1); Sec. of Beta Club (4); Librarian (4); Debating Team (4).

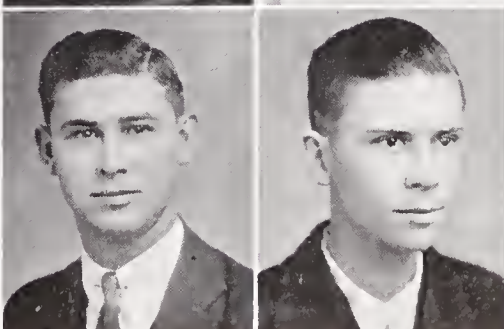

Intelligent, original and dependable partly describe Maxine. She thinks for herself and that ability has enabled her to become a real conqueror in every field.

Rachel Sloop

Dramatics Club (2-3-4); Pres. of Club (4); Sec. Girls' Athletic Club (4); Basketball (4); Tennis Club (2-3-4); Chief Cheer Leader (1); Track (1); Home Eco. Club (2).

All right, Miss Sloop, will you be serious? She has an overflow of friends (especially near lunch time) who think she's the top. Luck to you!

Junior Wilhelm

Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (2-3-4); Physical Ed. Club (3).

Junior is a willing worker and a loyal comrade. He has kept at his work for the past four years without a pause. He is one of the future "big farmers" of Rowan County. Don't work too hard, Junior!

The PARROT

Ralph Wilhelm

Baseball (3-4); Young Tar Heel Farmers' Club (1-2-3-4); Physical Ed. Club (3); Monogram Club (3-4).

Ralph has made a good record at C. G. H. He is a true friend and doesn't mind doing his part. Ralph is going to do great things in the future. You're doing well, Ralph, keep it up!

Janie Wilkie

Glee Club (1-2-3-4); Track (1); Tennis Club (2-3-4); Treas. of Class (1); Home Eco. Club (2); Basketball (2); Pen and Ink Club (3); Monogram Club (2); Marshal (3); Beta Club (4); Sec. of Class (4); Dramatics Club (4).

Mix one part of beauty with two parts of intelligence, add a dash of artistic ability, a big pinch of mischievousness, and combine all with some essence of common sense and we have Janie. We guarantee our recipe to be one of the best.

CLASS POEM

A ship comes sailing into port,
Bells ringing and sailors carefree;
Their voyage is done, with the set of the sun;
They have fought and they've conquered the sea.

The ship is the good class of '35;
The sailors none other than we;
The voyage—the course of our high school years;
We have won and the port we now see.

Many times we've encountered hardships
That have taxed our brain and brawn,
But with the last of the gale we tightened our sail
As our cry was ever "Sail On".

Sometimes the day was all sunshine;
Our spirits and hopes rose high
As we basked in sweet contentment,
Our eyes on the blue of the sky.

Now we embark on the voyage of life,
A part of the journey past;
Some will sail on with the courage they have
While others will shrink from the blast.

The weakest will aimlessly drift here and there,
Torn and tossed by the moving tide,
While the strong will steer a course that's clear
With the Pilot o'er all as their guide.

—FRED PEACOCK.

CLASS HISTORY

The effort of every historian should be to make the past live again in his pages.

As I take up my pen and turn my thoughts back over the past four years, I see our senior class again in various roles.

In the fall of '31 we entered China Grove High School a bunch of "green", but eager, freshmen. In fun we submitted to the inevitable initiating, thus proving ourselves good sports. For a time we thought ourselves perhaps inferior to the upper classmen, but as the months passed away we became accustomed to the high school routine and life took on a new aspect.

The following year we returned feeling ourselves a step forward in our high school career. With Lamar Morgan as our president and Miss Mackie and Miss Bernhardt as our advisors, we had quite a successful year.

By way of entertaining the seniors of that time, we gave a "weiner" roast which everyone enjoyed immensely. For our motto we adopted "Ever Upward Still We Climb" and agreed to keep it throughout the remaining years.

As always, the last two years proved the most crowded and eventful. As juniors, we elected Clement Murray as our president, and started the year off right by sponsoring a Hallowe'en Carnival under the guidance of our advisors, Miss Marshburn and Mr. Lingle. It proved a grand success as so many turned out to see it in their most appropriate costumes.

In the spring we began our preparations for the Junior-Senior banquet, which was the climax of our junior year. For our theme we chose "The Last Round Up". Our school colors, red and white, were carried out in the color scheme. The evening closed with a square dance, much to everyone's delight.

At last our senior year rolled around, and then began a series of various activities. We elected Lamar Morgan as our president, and under the leadership of Miss Neely and Mr. Bostian we began our final year.

At the Hallowe'en Carnival sponsored by the junior class we carried off the prize for the best stunt, with Mr. Bostian playing the leading part.

On many occasions we had difficulty in agreeing, but when our mascots, Peggy Jo Lipe and Arthur Davis, invited us to a theater party at Kannapolis, we agreed unanimously and enjoyed it greatly. The senior girls were also invited to another theater party by our grade mothers, Mrs. H. C. Corriher and Mrs. J. N. Fleming. This also was enjoyed very much.

Our senior play "The Brown Mouse," under Mr. Wanner's excellent directorship proved a huge success.

The most enjoyable event of the year was the Junior-Senior banquet given by the juniors in our honor. It was held at the Salisbury Country Club, with quite a number in attendance. The scene represented a Captain's Dinner held on a huge ocean liner. The sailor caps which everyone received gave the desired effect and all enjoyed the occasion greatly.

You see us now with our faults and glories confessed. We have at last reached the goal toward which we have been striving. But in our minds we remember that there is a greater goal for which we are striving; and if we keep our feet planted firmly upon this foundation and keep climbing we will reach it.

Remember that "he succeeds who keeps keeping on."

—LUCILLE HENRICKSON.

CLASS PROPHECY

Last summer while I was cruising on the Mediterranean Sea, I met a very interesting couple who appeared to be of foreign descent. They invited me to their stateroom and in order to give me an insight into some of the customs of their land they asked me if I would like to take a look at a crystal ball given to them by a elannish leader. Of course I was very interested and thought at once of my classmates of '35 and wondered if their future would be revealed to me. To my amazement, as I looked into the crystal I saw two very dim figures appear. Upon looking closer I saw Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Davis, the latter known to us as Juanita Dickerson. Mr. Davis is Dean of Men at Duke University and Mrs. Davis is the beloved French teacher.

The crystal next revealed Pearl Ritchie walking on the grounds of some large school. I recognized our own beloved China Grove High, now known to be the largest high school in the state. Pearl was the beloved coach of girls' basketball and was again leading China Grove to victories over Landis. There was on her left hand a big diamond. We wonder what it was for??????

I saw a sign over a large bus terminal which read, "Safrit and Son's Bus Terminal," owned by Homer Safrit who runs a bus line from coast to coast. Homer's business manager was Jasan Parks who, together with his competent secretary, Miss Letha Correll, manage his business. Homer's motto for business is the motto we used in the class of '35, "Ever Upward Still We Climb."

Next I saw Josephine Fesperman, owner of a beauty shop in the station of W. B. T., Charlotte, N. C. Television has now become very common and "Jo" has the job of "fixing up" all the radio stars. Her head helpers are Helen Corriher and Evelyn Davis.

The crystal then moved to China Grove, now one of the biggest cities in North Carolina. I saw a large sign with the words, "Miller's Hotel" above. Since Bill has taken charge he has "Bell Girls" instead of "Bell Boys." The head Bell Girl is Rachel Sloop. Rachel also has charge of the pop and soda fountain.

Next I was taken to Hollywood where I saw a figure I recognized as Fred Peacock, a second Bing Crosby. Rumors state that he and Miss Helen Wagner, of China Grove, are to be married in June and make their home in Hollywood. We wish them much happiness.

My view then went to Washington, D. C., where I saw Maxine Sloan as private secretary to the president.

Next I was taken to Broadway where I saw a large vaudeville act. I saw some of the members of the class of '35, known to us as Sadie Deal and Elizabeth Silliman. Sadie is known as the world's largest woman and Elizabeth has shriveled up until she is the world's smallest woman.

Next I was taken to Chicago where the world series in baseball was being played. I thought I saw a man on first base who looked familiar. On looking closer I saw it was none other than Troy Corriher.

Next I saw the United States army in action. I thought I saw a general that looked familiar. I saw it was Marvin Chapman. As I saw him as General I knew that his boyhood ambition had been realized.

My crystal then took me to the Notre Dame football field where I saw the first part of a game between Notre Dame and Georgia Tech. I found that Lamar Morgan, from China Grove, was playing half-back for Notre Dame.

Next my crystal revealed an image at a piano. At first I was unable to recognize the figure, then I saw it was none other than John White Bostian. It seemed that John White was making good as a second "Little Jack Little." He is now on a tour around the world, accompanied by his manager and brother, Philip Bostian.

The

I then entered a large hospital in New York where I saw a figure clad in white, known to us as Josephine Rankin. She has been head nurse for the past ten years.

I saw Douglas Houck running for the United States Senate. He is just finishing a term as a North Carolina Senator.

Next I saw a cozy little cottage on one of the best farms in the state. The farm is run by Carl Henry Deal. I found that he has been married to Louise Cress for five years.

My crystal next revealed to me Ralph McCorkle as a second Mr. C. B. Brown. He still carries on the lespedeza announcements made by Mr. Brown in chapel.

After Ralph's image faded, my crystal revealed to me a figure playing with a group of children, known to us as Lucille Henriekson. Lucille keeps a kindergarten in Washington, D. C.

Next I entered a small amateur radio broadcasting station owned and operated by Janie Wilkie and Clement Murray. They are known throughout the world for their amateur broadcasting system and are making it the largest in the world.

I next entered a large Baptist church in New York where I saw Rev. C. D. Barringer as pastor.

Next my crystal revealed to me a figure known to us as Blanche Curran. Blanche was head clerk in New York's largest department store. Clerks under her are Wilma Lawson and Pauline Barnhardt.

Next I saw a couple enter one of the new stream-line buses driven by Armon Sasser. The couple entering the bus was Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Houck, the latter known to us as Florence Erwin.

Jewrell Dial, who will be disappointed in love, will live the life of an old maid. She will be of great help to young boys and girls by handing out advice on their problems about everyday life.

I saw Earl Kirk as manager of a large chain of A & P stores.

After Earl's image faded, I saw Ralph Wilhelm as Farm Demonstration Agent of Rowan County. Ralph was asked who his best farmers were and he replied, "Junior Wilhelm and Grady Corriher are the best farmers I have in Rowan County."

My crystal next went back to Hollywood where I saw a famous movie star known to us as Elizabeth Fleming. Elizabeth was studying for her next picture with Clark Gable, "Reno Bound."

My crystal next revealed to me a beautiful home in Mill Bridge. Upon entering, I saw Mrs. John Cress, nee Sara Baker, sitting before the fire sewing.

Next my crystal took me to Greensboro where I saw a sign, "Hopkins' School of Music", above the door. I saw that the school was taught by Eva Jones Hopkins.

Then I saw my own image appear. As bad luck would have it, the deck steward entered my room with my lunch. As he entered, my image disappeared. I hurriedly dismissed the steward and looked again into the crystal in hope that my image would appear again, but to no avail. I then realized that my future was to remain unknown.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1935, have finished our life's toils and hardships at China Grove High School and are now ready to will some of our highly valued treasures and possessions to the Faculty and our beloved classmates.

Item 1. To our Board of Education and Mr. Shearouse we leave our sincerest thanks for the interest they have bestowed upon the school and our class during our four years of study. In return we wish to assure them of our continued loyalty and untiring labor in the future.

Item 2. To our parents who have shown such an interest in our class as a whole we leave our undying love and gratitude.

Item 3. To our Faculty we leave our best wishes and sincerest hopes that in the future they will have better students in word, deed and action.

Item 4. To Miss Neely and Mr. Bostian, our class advisors, we leave our love and appreciation of their helpful ideas and advice during our Senior year.

Item 5. To the Junior Class we leave our seats in chapel, our undiscovered "Senior Privileges," and the balance (?) in our treasury.

To Individuals from Class of '35:

Rachel Sloop leaves her position as head cheer leader to anyone possessing a better pair of lungs than herself, also to Sue Kimball a few ham sandwiches.

To Raymond Deal, John White Bostian leaves his hopes to grow tall.

The quietness belonging to Letha Correll will creep to Mary Virginia Honbarger and her Senior dignity (?) to Elizabeth Correll.

Grady Corriher leaves his red hair (without temper) to Jennings Trexler, hoping to prove to the vast majority of people that all "red heads" do not have the said characteristic.

Janie Wilkie surrenders her wad of gum to anyone who will chew it twenty-four hours per day. Apply early and avoid the rush.

C. D. Barringer leaves his extraordinary talents to any member of the junior class who promises to uphold them in the finest way possible.

Jewrell Dial leaves her radiant smile to Willene Corriher.

Philip Bostian leaves his willingness "to do things" to Haskell Curran.

Pauline Barnhardt passes her neatness and love for Mr. Bostian to Riley Park.

Ralph McCorkle leaves his good looks to Albert Miller, also ten cents just in case Albert should run out of gum for the girls.

Sara Baker's ability to ask questions goes to Alliene Roberts and her blushes to her pal, Mary Sue Dunham.

Lamar Morgan leaves his winning ways to Joe Frene and his position as captain of the football team to "Red" McSwain.

The best disposition in the class, belonging to Evelyn Davis, is willed to Louise Cress.

Troy Corriher leaves his watch to the school so the girls will not pester his friends with "What time is it?"

The book, "How to Catch a man," belonging to Sadie Deal is passed on to Helen Wagner. Sadie hopes the advice from this book will be as helpful to Helen as to herself.

PARROT

Marvin Chapman leaves his "efforts to please" to "Sock" Bostian, hoping that before "Sock" graduates he will have won the respect of the baseball team and Mr. Holt.

Jasan Park leaves his neat appearance to Marvis Goodnight.

Addie Maie Koon leaves her good sportsmanship to Marshall Washam and her extra pounds to Mary Lowder.

Junior Wilhelm bequeaths his "cuteness" to Owen Simpson.

The rays of cheerfulness that radiate from Eva Jones Hopkins are left to Hazel Owensby. Eva hopes Hazel keeps Kenneth smiling.

Douglas Houck leaves his love for Miss Fleming to Harry Lee Safrit but requests that he let the English class have one recitation without interruption.

Wilma Lawson leaves her quiet ways to Gertrude Wallace.

Wendell Davis wills to Arthur Bradshaw his smartness. Don't shine too bright, Arthur.

To Amy Lentz and Ruth Smith, Pearl Ritchie leaves her athletic ability and her love for Landis.

Earl Kirk leaves his quiet, unassuming ways to Harry Morrow.

Elizabeth Silliman wills her independent spirit to Margaret Davis. Go to it, Margaret!

The unusual abilities belonging to Maxine Sloan are willed to HESSIE Chapman.

Carl Deal leaves his title "Class Sheik" to Paul Corriher. Make 'em weep, Paul.

Helen Corriher wills her beloved French book to brother and sister, Stanley and Mabel, hoping they will learn (?) as much as she did about the language.

Joe Frene will acquire Fred Peacock's dish washing post but Fred says it is impossible to think of giving anyone his love for ———— You guess!

The studious nature of Lucille Henrickson goes to Lida Silliman.

Homer Safrit leaves his job as bus driver to John Wise. Be careful, John!

Florence Erwin wills her blue eyes to Mabel Jo Coggings and her love for "Mich" to anyone who can get it away from her.

Bill Miller leaves his athletic ability, a family tradition, to Elmer Ritchie hoping Elmer will pull ol' C. G. out of many tight places.

To Alliene Bostian, Elizabeth Fleming leaves her everlasting curls, and also her curlers provided she promises to use them every night as faithfully as she did.

The business-like air of Clement Murray is willed to Leon Frye but Clement's love for a certain good-looking blond remains his very own.

"Jo" Ferperman leaves her Chevrolet to Lillian Cruse. In case of an emergency it might come in handy.

Blanche Curran leaves her cleverness used in getting out of afternoon classes to Alyce Clawson.

Juanita Dickerson leaves her "pestering" to Billy Eller and her "gift of gab", perpetual motion perfected, to Helen Ross Cox.

Ralph Wilhelm wills his agricultural abilities to John Cress.

I, Josephine Rankin, having no special talents worth mentioning, do leave my love and best wishes to ol' C. G. High.

COUNSEL AND CO-OPERATION

More than any other business or professional man, the funeral director must consider the feelings of those with whom he deals. This requires not only sympathy to comply with the most trivial wishes of his patrons. In this organization we make it a rule that the patron's wish is law. Our part is not to dictate, but to counsel and co-operate.

The Thrill of Saving

No one is too old, too young, too rich or too poor to enjoy the thrill of saving money. The habit grows stronger with time. The measure of your value to yourself and your country is the surplus accumulated from year to year.

All are treated alike at this friendly bank and we cordially invite your account, whether large or small.
